TEMPORARY DRIVER LICENSE

This document must be carried with you and shall serve as your temporary California driver license. It is subject to the same class(es) and all restrictions as your permanent driver license. This temporary driver license does not provide you with any driving privileges if you do not have a California driver license or your license is expired, suspended, revoked, canceled or denied. It expires at midnight 30 days from the issue date of this order shown below.

This action is taken under authority of Section 13353 or 13353.2 of the Vehicle Code (VC) because you were arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs and:

BAC 0.08% Breath or Blood Test	You completed a breath test with 0.08% BAC or more, or you completed a blood test and the officer believes the results will show 0.08% BAC or more. If the laboratory results show that your BAC is less than 0.08%, this suspension or revocation will be set aside. Your driver license will be reissued to you if you do not have another suspension or revocation in effect.
BAC 0.08% Urine Test	You completed a urine test and the officer believes the results will show 0.08% BAC or more. If the laboratory results show that your BAC is less than 0.08%, this suspension or revocation will be set aside. Your driver license will be reissued to you if you do not have another suspension or revocation in effect.
Chemical Test Refusal	You refused to submit to, or failed to complete, a chemical test of the alcohol and/or drug content of your blood.

HEARING INFORMATION

YOU HAVE 10 DAYS FROM RECEIPT OF THIS NOTICE TO REQUEST A HEARING TO SHOW THAT THE SUSPENSION OR REVOCATION IS NOT JUSTIFIED. The suspension or revocation will not be stayed (delayed) unless you request a hearing within 10 days from the issue date of this order and DMV cannot provide a hearing before the effective date of the suspension or revocation and make a determination. Hearings are conducted only to determine questions of fact as described on the reverse. Your need for a license cannot be considered at a hearing. If you want a hearing or have questions regarding this matter, contact the DMV at the telephone number shown above. A telephone hearing will be conducted unless you request an in-person hearing. Before the hearing you may see or obtain copies of the department's evidence. You must request copies of the department's evidence at least 10 days prior to the date set for commencement of the hearing in order to receive them prior to the hearing date. If you want the information released to someone else, give them signed permission. You have the right to have a sign or language interpreter present at your hearing. If you require the service of an interpreter immediately notify DMV of the need for such service. During the hearing you may present oral testimony and/or other evidence. Testimony is taken under oath or affirmation, and the hearing is recorded. You may be represented by legal counsel, or you may represent yourself. The arresting officer(s) may be subpoenaed in this matter, if it is determined that his or her testimony is needed. If you wish to question the arresting officer(s), you have the right to have subpoenas issued on your behalf. You may subpoena any other witness(es) you feel may help your case, and you have the right to cross-examine any opposing witness(es). Subpoenas will be issued by the hearing officer upon request prior to the hearing. You are responsible for service of your subpoena(s) and any witness fees required by law. After the hearing the hearing officer shall make findings and render a decision. You may request a departmental review in writing within 15 days from the date on the bottom of the notice telling you the results of your hearing. The fee for the Departmental review is $120. You may also request a court review by contacting the superior court in your county of residence within 30 days from the date on the bottom of the notice telling you the results of your hearing.
